

You Gave More

Sixty years of love and devotion
A woman so beautiful and true
I write these words with so emotion.
You gave me more than I gave you.

Always there to follow me staying one step behind
Never ever putting yourself ahead of me
Your love and support for me always on your mind
On looking back its now so plain for me to see

Taking it all for granted never realizing it all.
How much you gave to me over the years that flew.
That now washes over all the things I now recall.
You gave me more than I gave you.
